DIRECTOR'S CORNER

BILLBOARD

Have you ever considered your vest as a “Billboard”? What a fantastic way to advertise: wearing your vest with your HOG patches! And what a grand way to show your Pride as a member of Southern New Mexico HOG. So, wearing your “Billboard” is one way to attract interest of those who might be considering joining our Chapter: especially after you’ve enlightened them about our “Safe and Enjoyable Adventures.” As an Ambassador of our Chapter, you reveal to the public, through your enthusiasm, what “ride and have fun” is actually about. Thanks for supporting your southern New Mexico HOG Chapter. You are an impressive “BILLBOARD”!

Looking forward to seeing you.

Gary Wee's Story

THE LOGICAL BIKER

On long rides my mind often wanders off thinking of stuff, I never thought of before. Like last week I was thinking of the housework that wasn't getting done, and I started thinking about the vacuum cleaner of all things. It got me a thinkin' on who the hell would put a light on a vacuum cleaner. Do people actually vacuum at night? Maybe I've been doing it wrong all this time.

What would be the advantage? Is there any benefit? Hmmm...what were they thinking? I got it. It's an energy saving feature. Going Green. A lower kilowatt rating at night. Think of all the money I've wasted cleaning house during the day. I knew I should have read the instruction manual. Maybe it would also tell me how fast to push and pull that stupid thing. No, no, no that can't be it. They would have put on a cup holder to hold the beer can. Maybe offer an ash tray holder as an option. I mean I'm not cutting into my drinking time for nobody's kilowatt.

Damn that vacuum cleaner. It's starting to piss me off. I got it. I'll unscrew the bulb when I get home. I'll vacuum when I damn well please. There, I feel better already. Solved that problem.

Now why does Harley have the light on?
