DIRECTOR'S CORNER

WHERE – WHAT – WHEN

PICNIC – PICNIC – PICNIC

FOOD – FOOD – FOOD

Where to go? What to do? When to do it?

Well, how about a “Brown Bag” picnic each month of April, May, and June. Then add in an Annual Chapter Picnic during May.

Now that there are so many choices, just seems fitting these are occasions to be outdoors, enjoy a motorcycle ride, and socialize with your HOG Chapter family.

So, let's have a picnic! What a great time to see how individualized a picnic lunch can be. Who knows, someone just might bring dessert. Now then, is it dessert first? (My favorite: PB&J sandwich, a soda, and apple or cherry pie – yum! What's yours?)

If a “Brown Bag” picnic isn't your forte, then what about an overnight sightseeing excursion? We're going to Albuquerque, for a couple of nights, (staying in a motel) to enjoy some scenic riding, and “Dinner Out” at a couple of great eateries. Food, food, and more food! Probably some “shop till you drop” goings on too.

Lots of choices! You need to decide whether to participate or not, but why not?

Seems like a Safe and Enjoyable Adventure awaits you. Will you be joining us for a picnic, a restaurant, a motorcycle sightseeing excursion, and friendship plus food, food, and food? Let's hope so!

Here's a great chance to be part of Where to Go, What to Do, and When to Do It.

Looking forward to seeing you as a participant.
