HOLIDAY SEASON

Yep, Tis the Holiday Season. Halloween, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving, Pearl Harbor Day, Chapter Party/Social, Hanukkah, Christmas and a New Year. WOW, lots of events to celebrate!

Also, Fall and Winter brings cooler weather. Riding a motorcycle in chilly temperatures, accompanied by winds, will create a chill factor that can get you "cold to the bone" (that's me). I know some really like the cooler days (Donald), but a thirty-minute scalding hot shower is about the only way I warm up. I'm the warm weather type: 90 degrees year-round is perfect.

Time to start wearing "layers" of clothing, or electric heated coat/vest and gloves, will help make those excursions to the Fall Colors territory a lot more enjoyable.

Whether you're taking a trip to visit friends and family or staying local please BE SAFE.

Listening to your wonderful adventures helps raise my spirits. I always look forward to seeing you.

Being part of Southern New Mexico HOG Chapter and our Safe and Enjoyable Adventures doesn't need to end with the cooler season. Heck no! Tis the Holiday Season.

Let's go for a ride. I hope you'll be joining us.
